Dallas Rock band ADORN Gains Momentum with 88.1 Indie FM Feature and New Album Launch

DALLAS, TX — Emerging from the vibrant North Texas music scene, rock band ADORN is solidifying its place as a formidable local force. Following a featured rotation on 88.1 Indie FM (KNTU), the band is proud to announce the release of their latest album, a project that captures the raw energy and melodic depth of the Dallas underground.

Known for a sound that balances hard-hitting riffs with atmospheric hooks, ADORN has quickly transitioned from a studio project to a regional "artist to watch." Their recent airplay on 88.1 Indie FM has introduced their lead single, "Pass the Pulse," to a wider audience across the DFW metroplex and Denton, garnering praise for its polished production and emotionally striking songwriting.

"Being recognized by a staple like 88.1 Indie FM is a huge milestone for us." says the band. "It validates the work we've put into finding our specific voice in a crowded scene."

The new album 'Let Love Remain' is available for streaming on all major platforms April 10th, 2026. ADORN is currently booking dates for a Spring/Summer 2026 regional tour, looking to bring their high energy performance to storied venues across Deep Ellum and beyond.

About ADORN: ADORN is a rock band based in Dallas, Texas. Drawing influence from Thrice and Saosin, the group is dedicated to hard hitting songwriting and authentic live performances. For music, tour dates, and press assets, visit www.adornband.com.
